Letter from the Festival Director

We are deeply grateful for your support for the Capital Art and Craft Festival, Artists and Small Businesses.

Our mission has always been to bring you talented artists who are true to the art of Handmade. Your continued support over the years has made this festival a vibrant celebration of creativity, craftsmanship, and community.

As an artist myself, I know the heart and soul that goes into every piece created by hand. This festival is more than an event, it is a gathering of stories, traditions, and passions shared between makers and those who appreciate their work.

We are entering a time of transition as our current venue changes purposes. While we search for a new home for 2026 and beyond, we ask for your patience and understanding. Our commitment to bringing you an exceptional experience remains unwavering, and we are excited about the possibilities ahead.

Please stay connected through the Capital Art and Craft Festival website and our social media platforms for updates. Location and dates will be posted as soon as they are confirmed. Together, we will continue to celebrate the beauty of handmade art, tastes of specialty foods, and the incredible artists who make it possible.

Thank you for being part of this journey. We can't wait to welcome you back soon.

Warm regards,

Judy Spargo
